Why Get a Step Up Instrument Now?

- A step up instrument will improve your child's tone, intonation and agility - and will allow him to continue to grow as a young musician.
- A step up instrument will encourage your child to spend more time playing - and the more time he spends playing, the more all his other academic subjects will benefit from his improved musical skills.
- Instant Rebates Available! With the holidays approaching, our selection has never been better and some of our major manufacturers are offering rebates on: Buffet Crampon R-13 clarinets and select instruments from Trevor James, Selmer, Bach, and more.
